

WORLD GEOGRAPHY 1

1. Look. Is this bear found in the Northern or Southern Hemisphere? _____
2. Is the world's largest snake found in Antarctica or South America? _____
3. In which ocean did the Titanic sink? _____
4. If it is spring in Sydney, Australia, what season is it in Tokyo, Japan? _____
5. Look at the world map. Name the shaded continent. _____
6. Did traditional Eskimos eat more meat or more fruit and vegetables? _____
7. If wearing a 'poncho' in South America, what language might you speak? _____
8. Is 'Christ the Redeemer' (statue) in Rio de Janeiro or Jakarta? _____
9. Do gorillas inhabit arctic or equatorial regions of the world? _____
10. Look at the ancient structure. In which Italian, capital city is this landmark? _____
11. In what general direction is China from Japan? _____
12. Are there more penguins in the Arctic or in Antarctica? _____
13. Is rainfall higher in north Africa or Sub-Saharan Africa? _____
14. What mainstream language do the Inupiat Eskimos in Alaska (U.S.A.) speak? _____
15. Look at the lady. What is the likely nationality of this traditional lady? _____
16. Are equatorial regions characterised by hot or cold weather? _____
17. Which North American country beginning with C, has a capital city of Ottawa? _____
18. Which city of 5 letters, is home to the Burj Khalifa and the Burj Al Arab? _____
19. In what mountains is the Abominable Snowman (Yeti) rumoured to live? _____
20. Look at the girl. To what nation does this girl and the Indus River belong? _____
21. In geography, does the Russian word 'taiga' mean forest or gorilla? _____
22. Do latitudes or longitudes run 'north-south' on the globe? _____
23. Can submarines navigate under the North Pole or the South Pole? _____
24. At sea level, which location is warmer, 75°N or 20°S? _____
25. Look at this character. In which continent would this cloaked character live? _____

Meat
Sub-Saharan
Forest
Longitudes
South America

English
Japanese
North Pole
20°S
Europe

Atlantic
Europe
Himalayas
Pakistan
Rio de Janeiro

Antarctica
Northern Equatorial
Rome
Spanish

Canada
Dubai
Autumn
Hot
West

