

WORLD GEOGRAPHY 9

1. Look at the statues. Are these statues located in the Pacific or Arctic Ocean? _____
2. Is the 'roadrunner' (bird) found in North America or Antarctica? _____
3. African rhinoceroses are usually classified as white rhinoceroses and _____ rhinoceroses.
4. In which very large country would you most likely find a Siberian tiger? _____
5. Look. In which Oriental country is 'The Hall of Supreme Harmony'? _____
6. From which direction does a westerly wind blow? _____
7. For what gambling establishments is the Chinese city of Macau renowned? _____
8. Measured base to peak, Mauna Kea (volcano) is the highest _____ in the world.
9. True or False? Sarongs have traditionally been worn by women in South East Asia. _____
10. Look at the world map. Which continent is shaded on the world map? _____
11. What is a baby deer called? _____
12. At 1000kmph, would it take 6 or 60 hours to fly from Singapore to Sydney, Australia? _____
13. Is precipitation higher near the Equator or near the Poles? _____
14. Named after a region in Russia, which tiger is the world's largest cat? _____
15. Look. Does the band on the globe indicate tropical regions or polar regions? _____
16. In which Greek capital city are the Acropolis and the Parthenon? _____
17. Are the best mink coats sourced in North America or Africa? _____
18. Which large east Asian country is home to the 'Terracotta Warriors'? _____
19. In which European, boot shaped country is the Amalfi Coast? _____
20. Look at the palm tree and compass. What type of wind is blowing? _____
21. Do coconuts prefer coastal or inland locations? _____
22. In geography, is an escarpment a fish or a long steep slope? _____
23. Does 15° or 150° longitude equate to approximately one hour in time? _____
24. Is the Aurora Borealis better viewed from the Arctic or near the Equator? _____
25. Look. Beginning with Y, what is the name of the animal shown? _____

HELP DESK

Black
Russia
Tropics
Athens
Italy

Yak
Casinos
Mountain
6
True

15°
North America
North America
China
Equator

Pacific
Westerly
Coastal
Long, steep slope
China

Arctic
Siberian Tiger
West
Arctic
Fawn

HELP DESK